

IPPOLITO INTERNATIONAL

Field Pack

Romaine Mini

- Mini Romaine lettuce from Ippolito International is a shorter variety of Romaine lettuce, perfect for smaller households; one head of this variety can easily create a single salad serving.
- Dark green on the outside, light green on the inside, this is a cupping variety that is easily prepared due to its uniformity and consistent leaf shape.
- With a substantial leaf count, this variety is a suitable choice for those operators looking for sandwich or salad filet-type applications.
